Tarnished receives the Taschen brand in its fifth year. Before that, RPG makers such as Square, Enix, and Cygames have also released their own fantasy action games and cartoons. We are proud to receive the brand name that has made an unforgettable impact on many fans. Since it is the best fantasy action RPG, we aim to maintain the brand's standards of excellence with the Fantasy Action RPG Tarnished and develop it as a product that fans of fantasy action RPG's can be proud of. This game was previously called "Tarnished: Rise of the Elden Lord."

開発・制作 ■ How to play Set a health point counter at 2000, and choose your class and equipped weapons. Head to either town or palace, depending on the class and equipped weapon set you have set. You can change equipped weapons and classes when you enter an icon while traveling in town or palace. You start the game with one of the five classes and can obtain new classes by leveling up. When you enter an icon, you can equip one of the weapons that are displayed in the Weapon Select window.

The effect of the equipped weapon depends on your class and the type of weapon it is. Customize your appearance in the Appearance window by changing the gender, hairstyle, face expression, and face color. Gain new magic items, which are displayed in the Magic Items window. Items can be equipped in the item slot with no restrictions.

Elden Ring Features Key:

- An undaunted fighting fantasy adventure set in an entirely new fantasy world.
- Beyond the high level of graphical quality, pleasing music and abundant event contents include a variety of content on the fields of action adventure.
- Various monsters, events, item, and challenges on a large scale created for players to enjoy the fantasy adventure.
- A variety of locales with a three dimensional design, such as fantasy themed forests, provide a range of attractive visuals.
- A battle taking place on such an interesting stage, as a battle using a fully-featured three-dimensional battle model.
- Three main character classes that play their own role in the story, including the swordsman, magic-user, and renown genius.
- Combine your growth and experience to unlock new classes.
- By using a two-tiered ranking, battles are conducted while you enjoy real-time determination contests among players that feel like a fight.
- Players can earn in-game items such as buff points, magic scrolls, and rare weapons by competing and winning, where the prizes will be sent to your mailbox later on.
- Class-specific abilities and skill combinations open up new strategies for players.
- In-game events in addition to a vast story that arises from delicate connections ensure that there is lots to do.
- You can play in three stages, including a training area, main story, and FM map guide. These maps are completely open so that players can enjoy the next contest even while playing the story.
- A variety of improvements, such as new quests, contents of the main story, and a battle system, have been added in advance of the launch in April 2014 in the test stage.
