What's new:

The attached username is my modding account, if you need to contact me regarding this matter, please don't PM me and instead ask the BG mod N3T3R_Sting on discord. Discord: Also I can provide you with attachments at a later date, I will need a list of what you want as reference. This is a.zip folder containing most of the resources from past versions of The Magic Potion and battles in the BG. Feel free to use this as an example of how I've organised the BG files. Before you pm me demanding the BG files otherwise, please take a look at those files and work with me to get them organised properly before you give me any crap. Magic Potion mod summary (higher balance):

- Dervish can now blink to a hidden position and then blink back, this allows Dervish to avoid being spotted by orb users (elemental causes ghosts to respawn to the surrounding area, so this is not an attack which occurs at random).
- Water Buffalo have a 1000hp + 1200sp + 1000mp shield buff. They no longer have the standard shield debuff in battles, so you need to be aware of this when opponent guards them.
- King Wolf have fast movement in the world and are now tamed, so they will flee and become enraged if tamed twice by the same person.
- Spirit Bear are no longer tameable and are a medium sized mob similar to a fox in the vanilla Minecraft skin, they move at 15-20 and can be sprinted.
- Striked Lizard can no longer be trampled on and are now medium sized mob similar to a coyote in the vanilla Minecraft skin.
- Flying Foxes now have medium speed in the world and fly in zig zags, they move at 15-20 and can be sprinted.
- Water Buffalo have a nymphing animation and if the player touches a neighbor entity, they set down and make a skwosh sound (they also have a new movement animation when under water).
- Bird Birds have replaced stick birds, they are medium sized mob similar to a crow in the vanilla skin, they move at 20-
