Serial.FIRST LIGHT FOR ORIGINAL 'HOLIDAY GUEST' AVA MARGO IS TODAY The official start of the Christmas season has dawned on a first day of official 'Lights Out' at the Osprey Observation Tower at Blackdown Hills, where the world-first planetarium show 'A Christmas Guest' has been playing since October. The planetarium is open daily until 7pm and is showing a repeat of the film on the 23rd of November. One million photos of the event and many words have been written about the planetarium show. On-site guests have been captivated by the 3D images in the planetarium and there are some great accounts of the show at www.facebook.com/a.christmas.guest A preview of the film can be seen at First time visitor author, Lucy Read is one such guest who was so impressed that she has written a book about her visit to the planetarium, A Holiday Guest. Lucy has given generously of her time and rare
