PODCASTS About 5,000 years ago, some of our ancestors lived in a world that was likely very similar to our own. If they were self-aware, they would have felt the same emotions and sensations that we do, but would not have been able to express them in the form of words. Until recently, they had no way of communicating with the rest of us. One of their descendants (you and I), now aware of the feelings and sensations of the rest of us, was able to communicate them by speaking. Now we can communicate by speaking (and I hope by writing as well). The problem is that we are unsure of 595f342e71
