It's not just like store-bought almond milk, it's creamy and DELICIOUS. It's not just like store-bought almond milk, it's creamy and DELICIOUS. It is the answer to every almond milk craving you may have. Use on pancakes, oatmeal, smoothies, baking, snacks, or in place of milk. My Latest Videos! What is your favorite type of almond milk? Ingredients a 1 1/2 cups. Almonds* 1 to 2 3/4 cups water *To soak your almonds, follow directions on the back of your Almondmilk can. The directions are pretty self-explanatory, and I'll just copy it for you below. DIRECTIONS 1. Place soaked almonds in a blender and blend on high until a creamy almond milk appears. If desired, strain the nut milk through cheesecloth or a paper towel to remove any large pieces of the nuts. 2. If desired, add any of the following ingredients: vanilla extract, cinnamon, a squeeze of lemon juice, ginger, rosemary, or orange zest. Store in a sealed container in the refrigerator and use within two days. Baking Isn't Boring! Jessie came home from school a few weeks ago and said, "Can we make rice crispy treats tonight?" And I said, "Well, of course!" We made so many fun treats the past three weeks. We made little ghosties from Jolly Rancher pieces, chocolate cookie monsters, marshmallow pops, s'mores, unicorn cookies, and more. I'm going to teach you how to make a guick and easy chocolate marshmallow cake pops too! These are delicious. c6a93da74d
