Girls Think of Everything Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women by Catherine Thimmesh, illustrated by Melissa Sweet 12 year olds will love this expanded and revised nonfiction book with Melissa Sweets gorgeous designs and illustrations. The author writes the biographies like a fictional narrative story with action and suspense which makes them fun to read. What great models for entrepreneurs, inventors, and having agrowth mindset. Racing With Dad by Rick & Maia Koen, illus. by Dana Summers. 4 1/2 year old girls will delight in this humorous story about a young girl and her father who go on three adventures. It is illustrated with a narrative painting style that makes it appeal to those who like to see the story told and the pictures tell the story. Rick and Maia Koen writes about the adventures as if they are a great series of events, people travel around the country and there is a competition between at least two. This is a wonderful book for entertaining children to make up their own adventures or for sharing the adventures with their kids. It is very funny, with real people that appeal to kids. A book not to be missed.
